

Youngsoo Kim
Biography
Candidate for URFA Treasurer, 2020-2022

Youngsoo Kim is Associate Professor of Finance at the Faculty of Business Administration, University of Regina. After a five-years' stint as banker, he enrolled at a Ph.D. program at the University of Pennsylvania, where he got his Ph.D. in finance. He arrived in Regina in 2001. Currently he is a tenured faculty member and his research focuses on corporate finance and market microstructure.

He has been a member of the URFA Trust Fund Committee since its inception in May 2016, a trustee to the CAUT Defence Fund since June 2018, and also a member of the URFA Finance committee since May 2019. He has been helping students at URInvesting from its inception in early 2010 as a member of the Investment Committee. URInvesting is a student-run investment management fund, which currently manages about $1.5 million. He is also the (informal) lead of the finance area.